

for long term exchanges in Agriculture

OCT 1957

J/m
File

Points of Soviet Proposal Requiring Attention of Department of Agriculture

- (4) Both sides will exchange in the second quarter of 1958 delegations of specialists (5 persons) in the field of cattle breeding, and in the third quarter of 1958 - delegations of specialists (5 persons) in the field of vegetable growing and horticulture for a period of 30 days.
- (5) Both sides will exchange in the third or fourth quarter of 1958 delegations of specialists in the field of compound fodder; in the second or third quarter - delegations of specialists of irrigation and drainage; in the third or fourth quarter delegations of specialists of production and utilization of fertilizers and poison chemicals for blights, blasts and weeds; delegations of specialists of mechanization of agriculture, and in 1959 - delegations of specialists of construction and electrification in agriculture, and specialists of cotton growing.
- (6) Both sides will exchange in 1958 delegations of specialists of forestry and forest industry.
- (37) In 1958 the Ministry of Agriculture of the U.S.S.R. will invite on the basis of reciprocity American scientists to visit the U.S.S.R. with the purpose of delivering lectures and exchanging experience in the field of biology, selection, pedigree cattle breeding, agrotechny, mechanization of agriculture, cattle breeding, and other fields.

Excerpt from Soviet proposal for long term exchanges

to

State Dept. declassification & release instructions on file